Who We Are

The Subramaniam Foundation is a registered charitable trust with a vision to ensure that music reaches everyone. The foundation engages in the following activities:

- Lakshminarayana Global Music Festival [LGMF] - showcases some of the world's best musicians by providing live music performances which are free and open to all. So far, it has been held in 22 countries for an audience of over 20,00,000
- Subramaniam Academy of Performing Arts [SaPa] - a music institute with 10 centres in Bangalore, Chennai and Mumbai focused on creating the next generation of performers
- The SaPa in Schools program - aims to develop 21st century skills in school children, using music as a tool. The program works with over 30,000 students today; it is also conducted in 17 government and NGO schools completely free of cost
- Lakshminarayana Global Centre of Excellence [LGCE] – Offering India's first music performance and education focused BA and MA programs
